GEORGE BURNHAM, PRESIDENT.
W. J. CHEYNEY, GENERAL MANAGER.
I. W. McELWEE, ASST. TREAS. & SEC.

Philadelphia, 3/10 1892

My dear Sam.

I am just back to my desk after two days with the N. J. Legislature at Trenton, and am glad to find your Tele. of 8th and letter of 7th: also one from Geo. C. of 28th ult. allowed yesterday. Please say to Geo. that I have his letter and the pictures and will write him soon.

I am so sorry at the losses of the people of Johnstown and especially that of Mr. Neville. I will write him as soon as I can.

I do hope that the big storm predicted by the weather wise will not come or at least not until additional provisions shall have come in or there might be serious suffering among the people. I do not know what the habit is there - whether each family lays in a winter supply or depends upon the stores - Both hotels being destroyed makes it serious for those who depended upon them for homes.

All of our people around are quite as well as they have averaged this winter. Will write you soon, more fully. I am clearing up my desk. Ever Yours Faithfully

W. J. Cheyney
